

BOGFEST 9

Make connections when you visit the 12,000 year old Creditview Wetland!

Saturday May 13, 2017 9:00am – 1:00pm

@ Creditview Wetland (off of Willowvale Gardens)

This annual community event is open to all and we count on your attendance to help maintain and learn more about this sensitive, special area.

Start the day with the Bird Count @ 7:00am

Explore the wetland area on an Ecotour and visit the Information Booths

Support local habitat – build a Bee Box to take home

Learn about wildlife and the importance of pollinators

Participate in invasive species identification and a pollinator count

Join the water quality & quantity education activities

Show your art talent at Sketch, Paint, and Shoot

Help maintain the native plant gardens

Pollinator seed giveaway!

Face Painting and games for children!

Complete your stewardship and then join us for a FREE BBQ!
(Drinking water will be provided. Please bring your own refillable container.)

Visit us at www.creditviewwetland.org for more information